THE KING WILLIAM ASSOCIATION CHARTER

STATE OF TEXAS
COUNTY OF BEXAR

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS:

That we, the undersigned natural persons of the age of twenty-one or more, at least two of whom are citizens of the State of Texas, acting as incorporators of a corporation under the Texas Non-profit Corporation Act, do hereby adopt the following Articles of Incorporation for such corporation:

- First: The name of the corporation is the King William Association.
- Second: The King William Association is a non-profit corporation.
- Third: The duration of the corporation shall be perpetual.
- Fourth: The purpose for which the King William Association is formed includes the following:

1. The corporation is organized and shall be operated for educational, recreational, and cultural purposes, especially the presentation and dissemination of understanding of the early life and cultures of the city of San Antonio, Texas, and the Southwest as reflected in home life, government, religion, education, industry (work), and the arts and crafts.

2. In pursuance of this basic purpose, the corporation proposes to restore historic buildings and to move to or construct in the King William Area of the City of San Antonio, Texas, other buildings around which to preserve the history of the City of San Antonio, Texas, in general and the King William Area in particular, which such structures not only preserved but made functionally useful in carrying out the purpose of the corporation.

3. The corporation shall systematically collect and preserve articles, documents, pictures, books, tools of agriculture, art, home furnishings, and other items representing the heritage and culture of home life, education, religion, government, and work (industry) in order to preserve same and make them available for study and use by writers and others and viewing by the general public. In this regard, special attention shall be devoted to the Pioneer-Residents of the King William Area.

4. In order to disseminate historical and cultural material and to promote the King William Association and its purposes, the corporation shall publish periodicals, pamphlets, and other materials from time to time as the Board of Directors deems appropriate.

5. The corporation shall foster and promote the cooperation and support of individuals, business groups, civic groups, and governmental units in developing tourist attractions in the general area and in strengthening the economic and cultural life of the surrounding area.

6. In further pursuance of this purpose, the corporation shall plan, promote, and conduct activities and special events designed to attract people to the King William Area for educational and cultural pursuits and to promote the arts and crafts.

7. In support of these purposes, the corporation shall solicit and receive funds and real personal, or mixed property and interests therein by gift, transfer, devise or bequest, and invest such funds and property, subject to such limitations, if any, as may be expressed in any instrument evidencing such gift, transfer, desire or bequest.

8. In the event of termination, dissolution or winding up of this corporation in any manner or for any reason whatsoever, its remaining assets, if any, shall be distributed to, an only to, one or more organizations described in Section 501(c) (3) of the United state Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

Fifth: The territory in which operations are principally to be conducted is the United States of America.

Sixth: Its initial agent shall be Rford N. Dobie, 316 King William Street, San Antonio, Texas 78204, and its initial registered office shall be at the same address with such subsequent offices as the corporation shall establish.

Seventh: The number of its directors shall be as fixed by the bylaws of the corporation and until changed by the by the by-laws, shall be three.

Eighth: The names and places of residence of its incorporators, shall act as its directors until the first annual meeting, are as follows:

ARTICLE 6. BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 6.01 Duties of the Board of Directors

The board of directors is responsible for the management and administration of the Association in all respects and has the power to conduct the business of the Association, except that which is retained by the membership as provided by these bylaws.

Section 6.02 Composition of the Board of Directors

- (a) The voting members elect a president, vice president, and 11 directors.
- (b) The board of directors includes a parliamentarian appointed by the president who is not a voting member of the board of directors unless the appointee is also a director.
- (c) The immediate past president remains a voting member of the board of directors for one year unless he or she declines to serve.
- (d) The executive director serves on the board of directors without voting privileges.

Section 6.03 Eligibility to Serve on the Board of Directors

- (a) To be eligible to serve on the board of directors, a member must have been a voting member in the Association for at least one year prior to joining the board of directors and is not subject to term limits based on prior service on the board.
- (b) A director who has three or more absences from regular meetings of the board of directors during the current term is not eligible for nomination to an immediate subsequent term.

(c) No two members of the same household may serve on the board of directors at the same time.

Section 6.04 Terms of Directors

(a) Directors are elected annually for a one-year term beginning January 1.

(b) A director may serve on the board of directors for three consecutive one-year terms in addition to any unexpired term, defined in the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised as less than 6 months and one day, except a director who has served three years on the board of directors may be elected to a one-year term as president.

(c) Directors are eligible to serve again after one year's absence from the board of directors.

Section 6.05 Electing Directors

(a) Nominating Procedures

(1) The nominating committee selects 13 eligible candidates for the board of directors; one is designated as the nominee for president, and one is designated as the nominee for vice president.

(2) In selecting candidates, the nominating committee must consider broad representation of the Association's membership by geography, gender, ethnicity, and experience working within the Association.

(3) All candidates must agree to serve on the board of directors.

(4) The nominating committee must deliver the slate of candidates at the September membership meeting.

(5) The presiding officer must call for nominations from the floor at the same meeting at which the nominating committee's slate is presented to the membership.

(6) Persons nominated from the floor must meet eligibility requirements and must accept the nomination by notifying the nominating committee not later than 7 days after their nomination.

(7) The final slate of candidates must be presented in writing to voting members not later than 10 days before the election.

(b) Election Procedures

(1) Voting will take place by paper ballot, following the procedures in the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order

Newly Revised.

(2) Proxy and absentee voting are not permitted.

(3) Should nominations from the floor result in a slate with more than 13 candidates, then those candidates receiving a majority of the votes cast will be elected. Voting will continue until all 13 positions are filled by a majority of the votes cast.

Section 6.06 Vacancies on the Board of Directors

(a) A vacancy on the board of directors occurs when a director resigns; ceases to be a resident, owner, or lessee in the King William neighborhood; or otherwise vacates the position.

(b) After three consecutive absences from regularly-scheduled board of directors' meetings, the position of any director must be declared vacant by the board.

(c) The board of directors may fill vacancies with less than six months and one day remaining on the term. The voting members will fill by election vacancies with greater than six months and one day remaining on the term as soon as practical following the vacancy.

Section 6.07 Removal from Office

The board of directors by a two-thirds vote may remove an officer or director from office for misconduct or neglect of duties following the procedures according to the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised.

ARTICLE 7. MEETINGS

Section 7.01 Board of Directors Meetings

(a) The board of directors will hold regularly scheduled meetings at least nine times per year.

(b) Special board of directors' meetings may be called by the president or a majority of the directors with no less than 24 hours' notice, and no business will be transacted except the items mentioned in the notice.

(c) A majority of the directors constitute a quorum for the conduct of business at any board of directors meeting.

(d) Voting by email is allowed when agreed by the board of directors at a meeting.

(e) Electronic meetings are authorized as long as the technology allows all participating members to see each other as well as hear each other at the same time pursuant to the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised.

Section 7.02 Membership Meetings

- (a) At least nine membership meetings or social functions will be held each year, except when otherwise determined by the board of directors.
- (b) The regular meeting in November will be known as the annual meeting for the purpose of electing the president, vice president, and directors; receiving reports of officers, the board of directors, and committees; and any other business that will come before the membership.
- (c) Special membership meetings may be called by the president or a majority of the directors with no less than 72 hours' notice, and no business will be transacted except the items mentioned in the notice.
- (d) The quorum for membership meetings is 5 percent of voting membership.

ARTICLE 8. COMMITTEES

Section 8.01 Ex Officio

- (a) The president is an ex officio member of all committees except the nominating committee.
- (b) The executive director is an ex officio member of all committees except the nominating committee and serves without a vote.

Section 8.02 Committee Procedures

- (a) Each committee must meet regularly and record minutes of its decisions, recommendations, and conclusions and must promptly deliver a copy of those minutes to the Association.
- (b) Reasonable notice of the meetings of any committee must be given to members.
- (c) A majority of the members of each committee present in person at a meeting constitutes a quorum for the transaction of committee business.

Section 8.03 Standing Committees

(a) Executive Committee

- (1) The members of the executive committee are the president, vice president, the secretary, and the treasurer. The executive director is an ex officio member.
- (2) The executive committee has all of the authority of the board of directors during the intervals between meetings of the board, except as to the election or removal of directors and the amendment or repeal of any action or resolution of the board.

(3) Meetings are held by call of the president whenever action is needed and when the president considers it impractical or unnecessary to call a special meeting of the board.

(4) All actions taken by the executive committee must be fully reported to the board of directors at the board's next meeting.

(b) Nominating Committee

(1) The voting members elect 5 voting members to the nominating committee, only two of which must be current directors.

(2) The nominating committee is nominated and voted upon at a membership meeting not later than May.

(3) Members of the nominating committee serve for a one year term. A nominating committee member may serve for a second term but no more than two consecutive terms. A member may serve again after two years off of the committee.

(c) Finance Committee

(1) The members of the finance committee are the current treasurer, who serves as chair of the committee, and no more than 8 additional voting members, whom the treasurer appoints annually from among the past presidents and treasurers of the Association as well as any other qualified member.

(2) The finance committee prepares the Association's annual budget, to be presented to the board of directors for approval no later than the annual meeting.

(3) With approval of the board, the finance committee develops and implements general financial practices, including investment, banking, audit, indemnification/insurance, and fundraising policies.

(d) Architectural Advisory Committee

(1) The president appoints the chair and the members of the architectural advisory committee annually from the voting members, and a majority of the members must be directors.

(2) The architectural advisory committee reviews plans presented to the San Antonio Historic Design and Review Commission and makes recommendations to that Commission for cases relative to the King William neighborhood.

(e) Cultural Arts Committee

(1) The president appoints the chair and the members of the cultural arts committee annually from the associate and voting members, and at least two of the members must be directors.

(2) The cultural arts committee promotes the arts in the King William neighborhood by pursuing grants and philanthropic gifts.

Section 8.04 Special or Ad Hoc Committees

(a) Special or ad hoc committees are created by the president or by the board of directors, as deemed necessary to carry out the work of the Association.

(b) If a special or ad hoc committee has been dormant for 90 days, then the committee will be dissolved.

ARTICLE 9. STAFF

Section 9.01 The staff may consist of an executive director and such other positions as the board of directors deems necessary.

Section 9.02 The executive director coordinates and supervises all projects undertaken by the Association, regularly attends meetings of the board of directors and provides the board of directors with periodic reports of projects and activities of the Association. The executive director performs such other duties and responsibilities as may be assigned by the president or the board.

ARTICLE 10. PARLIAMENTARY AUTHORITY

The parliamentary authority contained in the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised will govern the Association in all cases to which they are applicable and in which they are consistent with these bylaws and any special rules of order that the Association might adopt.

ARTICLE 11. RULES GOVERNING CONDUCT OF BUSINESS

Section 11.01 The Association's fiscal year is January 1 through December 31.

Section 11.02 Legal Requirements for Non-Profit Organizations

(a) No part of the net earnings of the Association will inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, officers, directors, or other private persons, except that the Association is authorized to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the Association's purpose.

(b) No substantial part of the Association's activities will be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation must not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

(c) The Association will not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Section 11.03 Grants and Donations

At the discretion of the board of directors, grants and donations of Association funds may be made to schools and other organizations serving the King William neighborhood and its residents.

Section 11.04 Insurance and Indemnification

(a) The Association must provide appropriate insurance for directors and may do so for employees.

(b) The Association must provide an appropriate bond for the treasurer and executive director.

(c) The Association may indemnify directors, officers, and others to the fullest extent permitted by law and as reflected in a policy adopted by the board of directors.

Section 11.05 Dissolution

In the event of the Association's dissolution, assets will be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or will be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose.

ARTICLE 12. AMENDMENTS TO THESE BYLAWS

These bylaws may be amended or revised by a two-thirds vote of the voting members present and voting at any meeting of the Association where a quorum of at least 20 percent of the voting membership is present, provided that the proposed amendment has been presented in writing by the parliamentarian to the membership at least two weeks prior to voting.

LET'S TALK ABOUT NOISE!

We are working with the city of San Antonio to gather information about the main sources of noise, examining and eventually revising existing ordinances and their enforcement, and engaging all stakeholders to start a discussion about noise to ensure the continued viability of our community.

HERE IS HOW YOU CAN HELP:

Report any noise complaints to the city.

Call the SA Police Department non-emergency number, 210-207-7273, and receive a case number. *Each complaint becomes a statistic we can follow to track sources of noise and response rates.

You may also let us know what you reported.

Let us know what else we can do;
email us at info@ourkwa.org
